Negotiations Update
Friday, October 19, 2018

Dear Hawaiian Flight Attendants:

This week marked our last round of direct negotiations with the company before our joint meeting with the National Mediation Board in November. Our Mediator had tasked the company and the AFA negotiating committees with creating a list of items that both parties could work on when negotiations resume. Working through the list of outstanding proposals, we were able to create a list with the company. In the process we were able to reach a few minor tentative agreements. Follow this link to see exactly where we are (Mediation) in the negotiations process.

Aloha Karen

We'd like to acknowledge and thank Karen Berry, Vice President of Labor & Employee Relations, who will be retiring from Hawaiian Airlines early next month. Karen began her career with Hawaiian 28 years ago in Finance. Karen has lead the last two rounds of Flight Attendant negotiations and has participated in Flight Attendant negotiations for at least the past 20 years. Aloha Karen!

Our next bargaining session is scheduled for November 6-8, in Phoenix, Arizona, as directed by the National Mediation Board.
